

Movement 12 is a group of independent dance artists practicing across art forms, based in and around Brighton, who curate an international programme of artist led professional development opportunities.

The nine artists of Movement 12 all have established practices and while these practices are undeniably diverse the group recognises the value of creating structures that can sustain both artistic development and the evolution of dance as an art form in it's broadest forms of expression. The programme outlined in this brochure continues the core aims of Movement 12, in the proposal of a variety of contexts for dance artists and their collaborators to come together with others working in their fields to support, challenge and expand the work they do.

Movement 12 aims to facilitate an environment in which the focus is on process, exploration and discovery rather than on product, and on giving professional dance artists some breathing space in which to train, try things out and explore new territory.

Expanded Dance Space & the private choreography of public space

curated by CiCi Blumstein

CiCi's month is based on her work with the moving body as the smallest architectural unit in the built & natural environment. Her program explores movement within private and public space - how do we inhabit these different realms, and could our private choreographies expand into and directly shape the design of public space?

Expanded Dance Space Workshop & Lab - parts I & II With Alan Thompson, CiCi Blumstein & guests @ BLANK Studios & Gallery

In this in-depth 2-day workshop, we will examine the relationship between choreography & architecture, movement arts & urban planning, and how these diverse fields could work together to directly impact on the development and shaping of both public and dance space.

We will explore these questions through presentations, talks & discussions, practical movement & design exercises, as well as construction & installation.

Day I of the workshop will focus on how dance space and urban/public space is currently defined and how it could be expanded.

Day II will focus on creating a temporary dance space to reflect and incorporate the findings of the workshops and week-long residency at BLANK Gallery [see further info below]. The day will end with a public showing / inhabiting of the temporary dance space in action.
